Ephesians 1:15-23

Ephesians 1:18

3. The immeasurable greatness of His power toward you.

...and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power toward us who believe...
Ephesians 1:19

Distorted sight leads to a less than life.

For this reason I too, having heard of the faith in the Lord Jesus which exists among you and your love for all the saints, do not cease giving thanks for you, while making mention of you in my prayers; that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give to you a spirit of wisdom and of revelation in the knowledge of Him. I pray that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened, so that you will know what is the hope of His calling, what are the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints, and what is the surpassing greatness of His power toward us who believe. These are in accordance with the working of the strength of His might which He brought about in Christ, when He raised Him from the dead and seated Him at His right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the one to come. And He put all things in subjection under His feet, and gave Him as head over all things to the church, which is His body, the fullness of Him who fills all in all.

Ephesians 1:15-23

God's desire is for the spiritual eyes of your heart to be enlightened. (vs17)

If you could see you, the way God sees you, you would see you in a whole new way.

For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I have been fully known.

1 Corinthians 13:12

What God Wants You to See

1. The hope to which He has called you.

...having the eyes of your hearts enlightened, that you may know what is the hope to which he has called you... Ephesians 1:18

2. The riches of His inheritance for you.

...what are the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints.

If you could see you, the way God sees you, you would be you in a whole new way.
