Clothing Guidelines

Casual clothing is acceptable during all activities & worship services. However, many do enjoy dressing nicely for evening worship. All clothing should reflect modesty & discretion. Please review the dress code on the following page.

Emergency Contact

- Trinity Pines (936) 594-5011
- The Fellowship (281) 395-3950
- Pastor Joe Carollo (405) 326-2500
- Max Simnitt (713) 870-2810 (Retreat Director)
- Drew Parrish (713) 819.3652 (Retreat Director)
- Susan Simnitt (713) 301-5302 (Retreat Nurse)

The Fellowship Students Dress Code

The idea here is to dress conservatively, modestly and respectfully for the benefit of yourself and others. This dress code policy is not designed to 'control' you but rather we designed it because we love and care for our students!

Girls Dress Code

General Clothing

- Athletic shorts, jean shorts, and any other type of short
 - No shorter than mid-thigh, no holes in shorts
- Jeans
 - No low rise jeans, undergarments must not be showing (standing or sitting) and no holes above mid-thigh
- Spandex/Athletic/Yoga Pants
 - Must wear a long t-shirt that completely covers your backside (standing & sitting)
- Tank Tops
 - No undergarments revealed and no low V/round necks; must meet the 3 finger strap rule
- Spandex Tops and other tops
 - No halter tops (strapless), no spaghetti strap tops, no mid-skin, no low V or round necks, length at hips
- Rompers
 - Too short, too revealing; be advised, we are not keen on these! We recommend not wearing these but if you do you must adhere to the same rules as listed above
- Dresses/Skirts
 - No shorter than mid-thigh, no large holes or revealing clothing
- Shirts
 - All shirts need to conceal your chest and cleavage. Must not reveal your waist line

Guys Dress Code
